Hiring of Consultant for

Development of Business Plan for the National Skills University Islamabad

Vision 2025 recognises the people of Pakistan as an asset and tries to leverage their strengths for growth and development. The demographics of Pakistan with nearly 110 million people below the age of 30 present a unique opportunity which we cannot afford to waste. The incumbent Government's leading priority is to tap their latent energies, potential and skills in making them effective managers of change for tomorrow.

The Government of Pakistan plans to establish a National Skills University in Islamabad to fill the gap of skilled manpower in the country. The University will produce a substantial number of high quality graduate technologists in various disciplines required for immediate developmental needs of the country. The graduates will be able to work independently, provide leadership and will have better self-employment prospects. It is envisioned that the University will also make significant contribution to the technological development helping resolve the major industrial and societal problems and it will support technical institutions in the country by providing trained human resource.

HEC is seeking services of consulting firms with requisite qualification and experience to develop Business Plan of the National Skills University. Interested firms may obtain Tender Documents from the office of the Director General (P&D), Higher Education Commission, Sector H-9, Islamabad on payment of Rs.1000/- on or before August 21, 2017 during working hours. PPRA Consultancy Services Regulation 2010 (Quality & Cost Based Selection) will be followed.

Last date for the submission of bids (Technical and Financial) is August 22, 2017 at 1400 hours and the technical bids will be opened on the same day at Mural Hall, HEC, Sector H-9, Islamabad at 1430 hours. The same advertisement is available at HEC and PPRA websites.

Last Date for Submission of Bids: August 22, 2017
